The IEEE International Workshop on Information Forensics and Security (WIFS) is the annual flagship workshop organized by the IEEE Information Forensics and Security (IFS) Technical Committee. Its 7th edition will be hosted by Roma Tre University, Department of Engineering in Rome, Italy, November 16-19, 2015.

Keynotes: Three plenary talks on relevant emerging topics will be given at WIFS 2015:
- “Smoking Blocks - Fighting and Preventing Crime with Virtual Currencies” by Rainer Böhme (Universität Innsbruck, Austria).
- “Privacy and Security in the Genomic Era” by Jean-Pierre Hubaux (EPFL, Switzerland)
- “Dealing with noisy data in biometrics and PUFs” by Boris Škorić (Technische Universiteit Eindhoven, The Netherlands)

Tutorials: Four tutorials will be scheduled for the first conference day, Monday November 16, 2015:
- “Privacy-Aware Data Analytics” by Shantanu Rane (Palo Alto Research Center, CA, USA)
- “Adversarial Signal Processing” by Mauro Barni (University of Siena, Italy) and Fernando Pérez-González (University of Vigo, Spain)
- “Privacy in Smart Metering Systems” by Deniz Gunduz (Imperial College London, UK) and Georgios Kalogridis (Toshiba Telecommunications Research Laboratory in Bristol, UK)
- “The Open Set Recognition Problem in Information Forensics and Security” by Walter J. Scheirer (University of Notre Dame, IN, US) and Anderson Rocha (University of Campinas, Brazil)

Content: WIFS 2015 will feature a rich program covering different areas of information forensics and security, with topics of interest including, but not limited to:
- Cryptography for multimedia
- Network Security
- Hardware Security
- Watermarking and Data Hiding
- Steganography and covert communications
- Anonymization and Data Privacy
- Biometrics
- Surveillance
- Forensic Analysis
- Information Theoretic Security

Demo and ongoing works: Sessions dedicated to on-going works and demo presentations will be organized to give researchers the opportunity to present their latest activities to the general audience.

Social Program: A visit to Villa Farnesina will take place. Villa Farnesina, located in Rome (Trastevere), is considered one of the noblest and most harmonious creations of Italian Renaissance. The interior is decorated with frescoes by Raphael Sanzio, Sebastiano del Piombo, Giovanni da Udine, Giovanni Bazzi known as il Sodoma, Giulio Romano, Giovan Francesco Penni, and Baldassarre Peruzzi himself.

The Gala Dinner will take place at the Grand Hotel de la Minerve. Among the 5 star luxury hotel in Roma, Grand Hotel de la Minerve is housed in a magnificent mansion dating from 1600’s. Set in the historical city centre, the hotel overlooks the Pantheon and is just minutes from Piazza Navona, the Trevi fountain and the Spanish Steps.
